

Ganesh says he is joining politics to give back to the community.

"Over years, I have conducted free seminars and events for the people in Parramatta to help them prepare resumes for work, have helped and motivated them to find jobs and accommodation and have provided them with the necessary information and the motivational support," he says.

If elected, Mr Loke's party promises to introduce tax-deductible home loans and 20-year visa for migrants' parents.

"My party is proposing 'reduced tax rates' and 'tax-deductible home loans' which will ultimately help the Australian families to buy their home or invest in properties."

"If elected, the UAP will propose changes to the Parents visa system, and will allow 'longer stay visas for parents (15-20 years)' for lesser visa fees."

Mr Loke shares his role models are Mahatma Gandhi, Mother Teresa, Martin Luther King Jr. and Barack Obama.

"These great leaders fearlessly worked hard for the people to bring peace and prosperity to the world," he says.
